Distinguished by his natural confidence and unwavering dedication to achieving exceptional results, Leon Axford is an auctioneer that will go the extra mile to see his clients realise their goals.

As a Winner of the REINSW Auctioneer of the year and a Runner up at the Australasian Championships, Leon is the calibre of auctioneer with a proven track record.

Leon's highly adaptive approach is invaluable in the ever-changing auctioneering arena, along with his intuitive communication skills essential for negotiating with bidders and maximizing results.

Conducting in excess of 700 auctions per annum gives Leon the experience to implement and execute the perfect strategy each and every auction.

As a consummate professional, it comes as no surprise that Leon's clearance rate consistently exceeds all industry averages.
